

The Expert Teacher: Outstanding Learning Strategies

- Do you know the three key interventions that will make the greatest difference to your students' learning?
- What does it mean to be good at your subject?
- Why do we forget so much so quickly?
- The five characteristics of the expert teacher
- How does an introvert deal with group work?
- How does your mindset affect the way you learn?
- How can flexible groups improve learning?
- How can intelligence be taught?
- Which comes first: big picture or detail?

This is what previous participants on Simon's courses have said:

"A very useful day. Lots of excellent and practical ideas"

"The best course I have been on for a long time"

"Excellent – so many ideas to take back to the classroom"

"Brilliant – both enjoyable and informative."

Simon Green is an education consultant. He works with a number of schools, colleges and universities in an advisory capacity.

Simon Green BA MEd FCIL

Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Linguists

Chevalier dans l'Ordre des Palmes Académiques

Simon has a national reputation with many years experience in teacher training and delivering in-school consultancies, courses and conferences.

Course fee: full day's training in-house £600 (plus travel costs)